Why Apria?

Apria is one of America's leading provider of integrated home healthcare services and equipment. Apria employs over 6,000 healthcare professionals in more than 290 service locations across 48 states.

Apria is contracted with most insurance companies and managed care organizations to provide a comprehensive range of therapies, services, and expertise in your area.

- Home Oxygen Therapy and Respiratory Services
- Sleep Therapy and Supply Refills
- Non-Invasive Ventilation Therapy
- Negative Pressure Wound Therapy

Apria helps seamlessly transition patients from hospital to home and then partners with patients to provide support and compassionate care throughout the entire length of therapy – from setting up the device, to getting accustomed to therapy, to ordering replacement supplies, and everything in between.

Accredited by The Joint Commission

Apria Healthcare holds The Joint Commission's Gold Seal of Approval®. The seal acknowledges Apria's quality and commitment to the delivery of safe and effective care to the patients we serve.

Full Service Respiratory Provider

Apria aims to ensure that its patients receive the best care available in the comfort of their own home while maintaining mobility and independence. Advancements in technology have made home respiratory devices smaller, more lightweight and energy efficient and Apria continually updates its inventory so patients can benefit from these innovations.

Apria offers:

- Home oxygen
- Overnight oximetry testing for chronic conditions
- Non-invasive ventilation
- Nebulizers for chronic conditions and inhalation drugs

Home Oxygen

Apria offers a wide selection of oxygen equipment, including concentrators, home transfill, portable conserving devices and portable oxygen concentrators.

Non-Invasive Ventilation

Apria's licensed respiratory therapists are personally involved in managing the treatment and care of non-invasive ventilation patients.

Apria Pharmacy Network™

Apria's homecare pharmacy provides convenient delivery and free shipping. If the patient has Medicare Part B, up to 80% of the cost of the patient's respiratory medications may be covered. Apria Pharmacy Network™ also works with many other insurance companies and Medicare Advantage plans.

Wound Care

Apria's portfolio includes the full line of both the Avance® and Medela Invia® negative pressure wound therapy products. Now more than ever, Apria offers more options to meet patients' individual needs.

Medela Invia®

Apria is the preferred national provider of Medela's Invia® negative pressure wound therapy products. Medela's Invia® NPWT System offers reusable and personal pump options:

Invia® Liberty
Therapy confidence made simple

Invia® Motion
Personal pump convenience with reusable pump performance

Avance®

Apria is the exclusive U.S. provider of Mölnlycke's Avance® negative pressure wound therapy products, including Safetac® the original wound contact layer with silicone adhesion.

Apria is available on WoundExpert® and iHeal® for easier online ordering, documentation and compliance planning, authorization tracking and a 100% paperless patient record.
